

Privada

Privada was one of Norton's first high-end wines. This wine's name is inscribed in each bottle by Gernot Langes-Swarovski's own hand and it was originally reserved for family and close friends. Today, Norton has the honor of sharing it with its customers.

Apellation Name: Luján de Cuyo, Mendoza

Vineyard Height: Between 850-1100 mts (2788-3608 ft) above sea level

Vine density: 4.500 vines/ha (1822 vines/acre)

Vine Age: 50 to 80 years

Yield: 1,6 tns/acre

Aging: 100 % 16 months in first and second use french oak barrels

Bottle: 12 months

Drinkability: Up to 5 years

PRIVADA

A BLEND OF MALBEC, CABERNET SAUVIGNON AND MERLOT, IS CHARACTERIZED BY HARMONY AND COMPLEXITY, BEARING INTENSE SCENTS AND FLAVORS.

Originally reserved for the family's private cellar