KAIKEN CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Kaiken wines are named after a hardy goose that crosses the Andes between Chile and Argentina – in the same way that celebrated Chilean winemaking father-and-son duo, Aurelio Montes and Aurelio Montes Jr., have done to make great wines that show the best of both sides of the Andes. Aged for six months in new and used French oak, the wine is deep ruby-red, with lovely aromas of blueberry and hints of cassis. Rounded and perfectly balanced, it is ready to enjoy now.
