

Wine Spectator

Perdriel Coleccion Cabernet Sauvignon 2010

SMART BUY

Tightly wound bouquet of raspberry, dark berry fruit, cold black tea and mint that needs just a little more nuance. The palate is well-balanced with fine, supple tannins. It is focused and demonstrates good weight and structure, especially on the finish with clean, lifted blackberry, raspberry and crushed stone notes. This is a classy Cabernet for mid-term consumption. Drink now- 2018.

– Neal Martin

November 2013 issue